

I have a special plan for him.

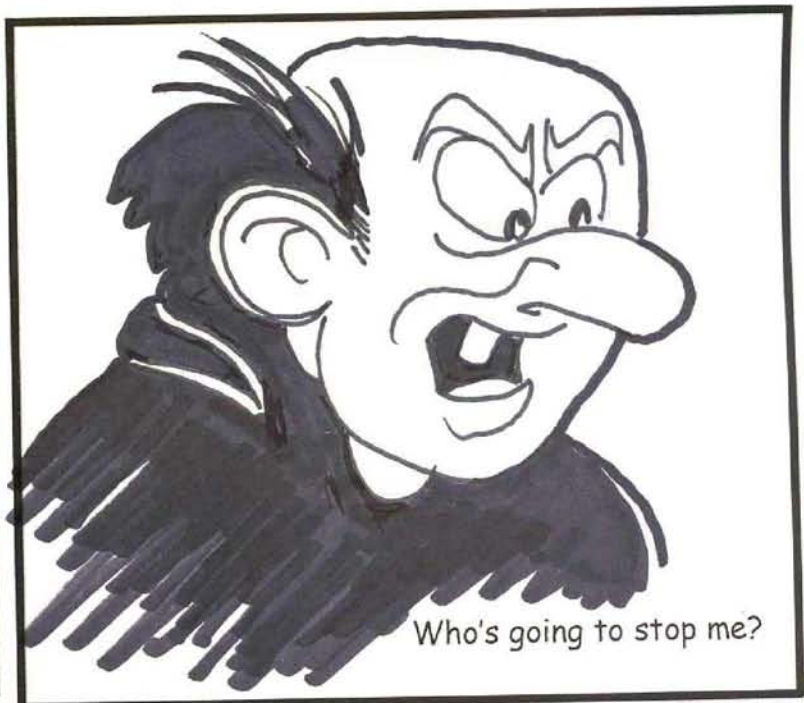

You are going to regret this.

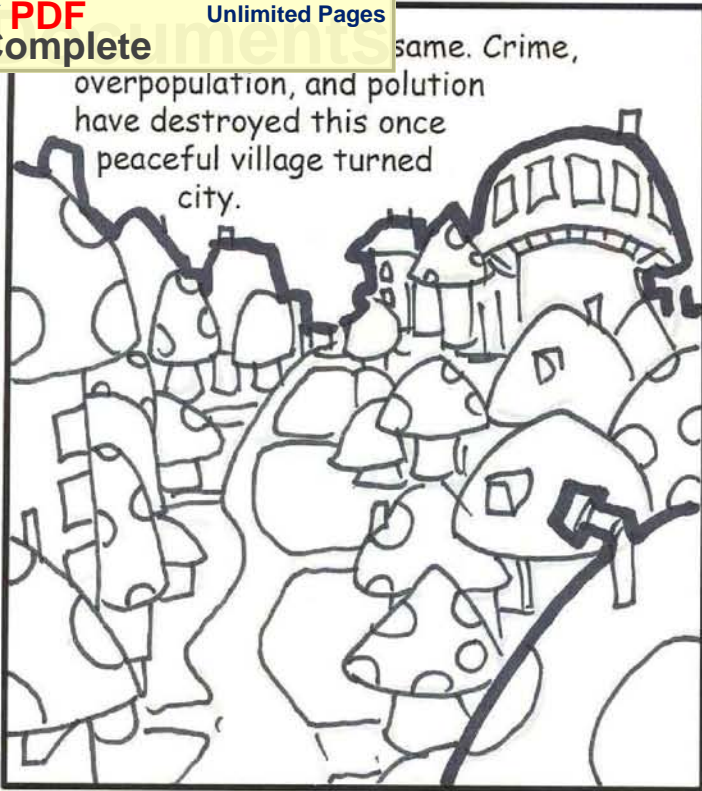

Ha, ha, ha

You will never get away with this.

Who's going to stop me?

... same. Crime, overpopulation, and pollution have destroyed this once peaceful village turned city.

It has gotten to the point where...

Smurfs

... decent smurfs can't even walk the streets after the sun goes down.

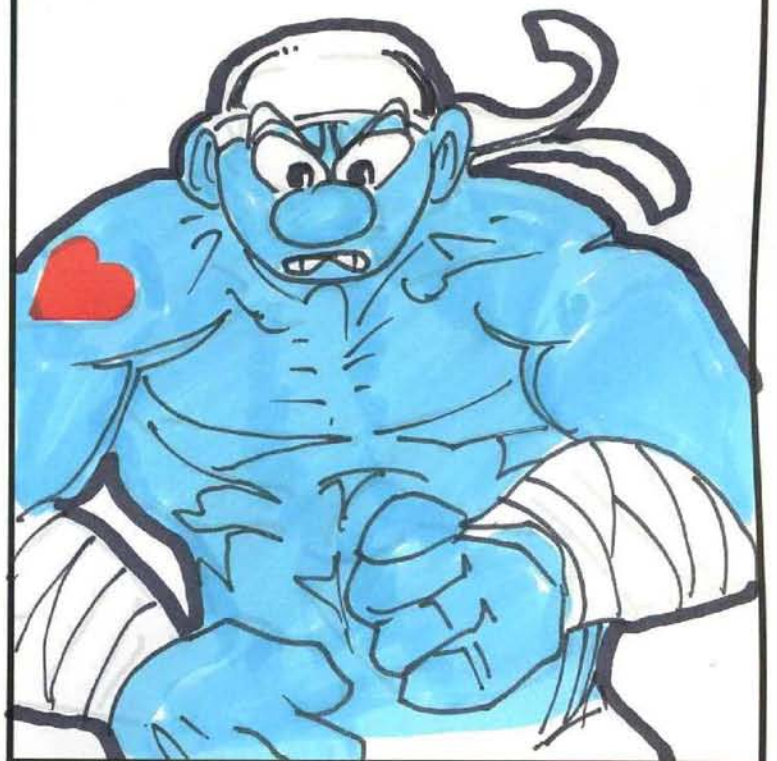

Some smurfs thrive on this out of control city and its corruption.

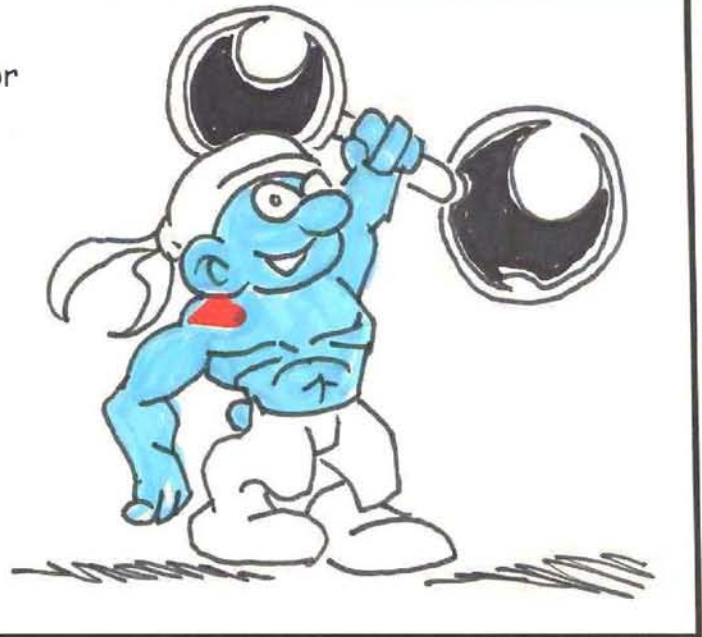

Oh...SMURF!

HEFTY

The strongest of all smurfs - Hefty found himself in the world of professional wrestling.

That is until he got kicked out of the pros for using too much juice.

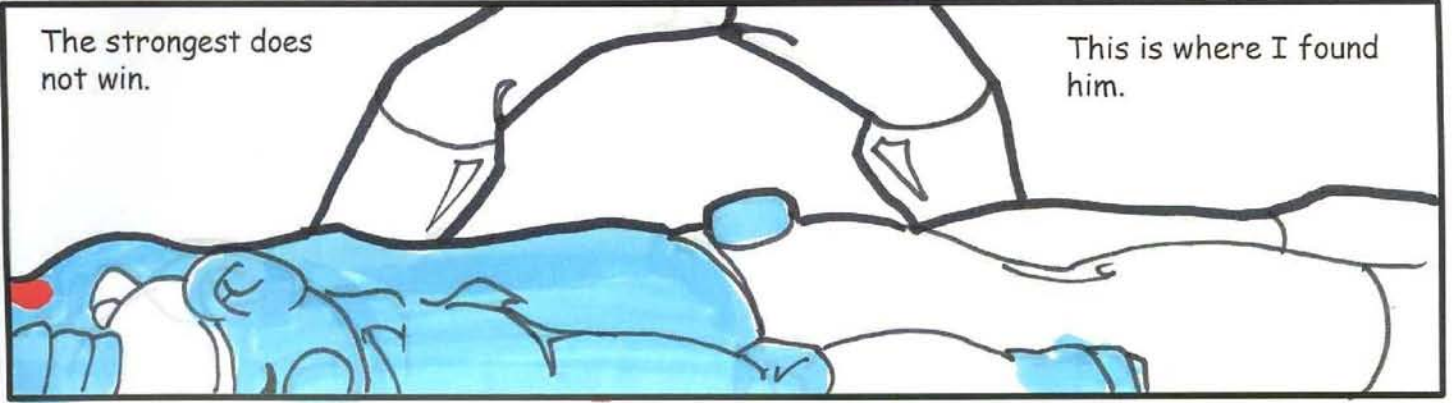

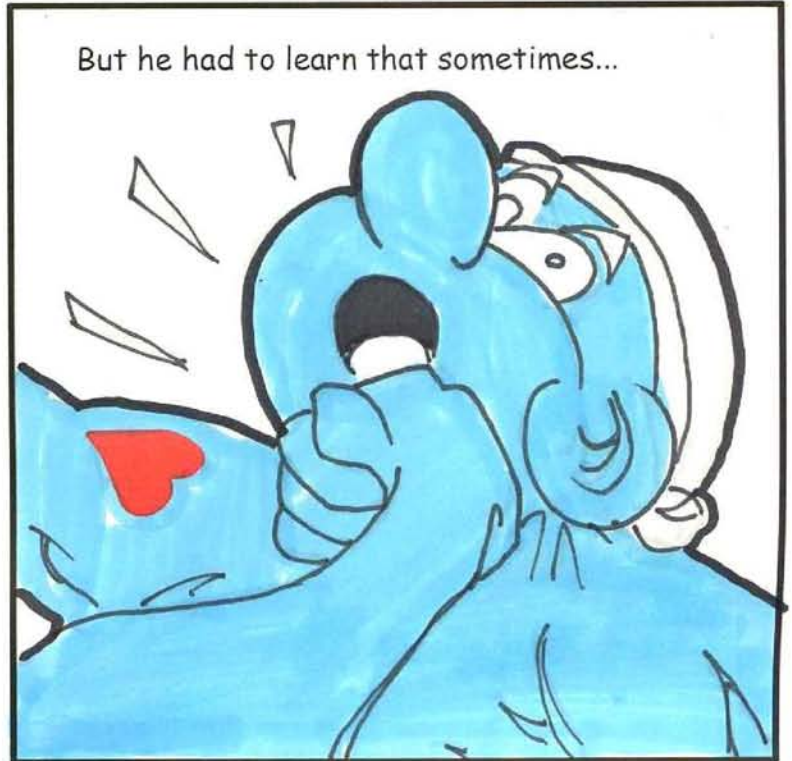

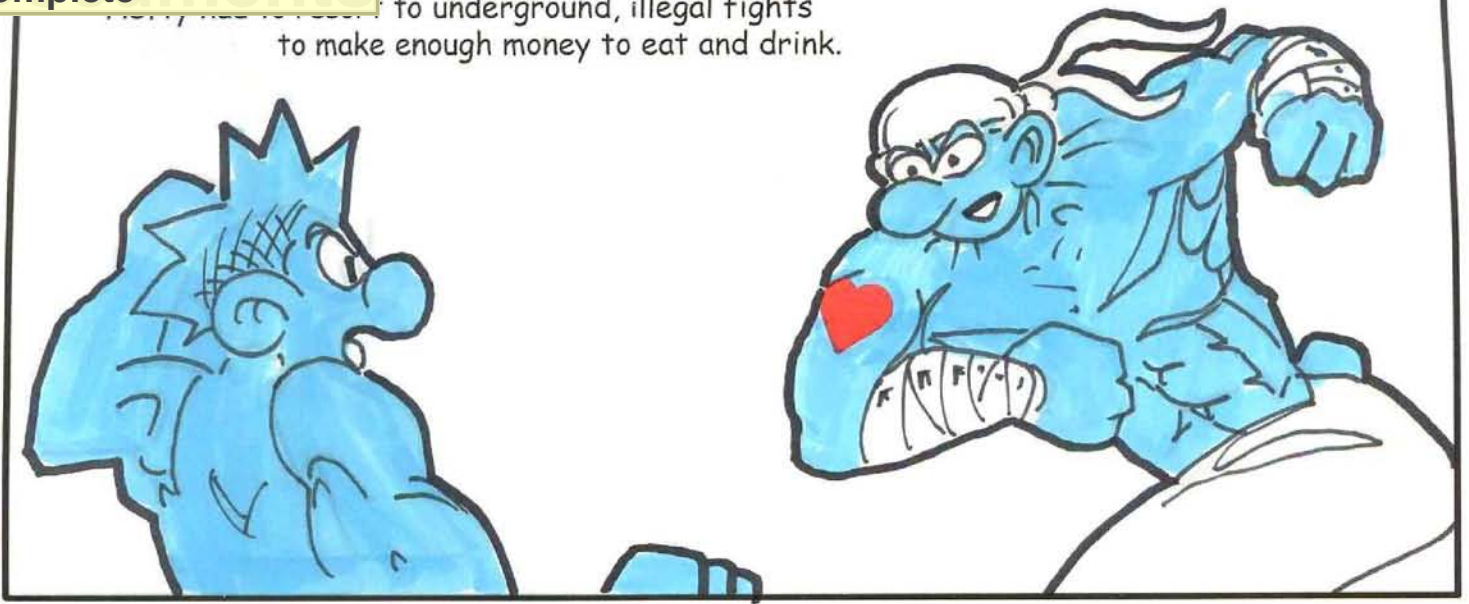

Hefty liked to pretend he was still a star...

...but the truth is he spent most of his nights in a cardboard box in an alley.

to underground, illegal fights
to make enough money to eat and drink.

Actualy I found hime
in an alley, laying in his own blue fluids.

Hefty
Get up!

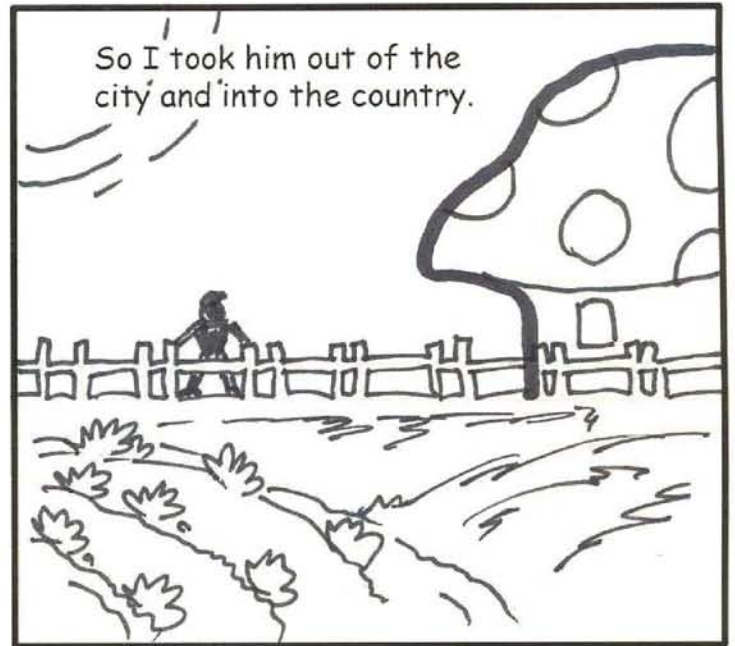

He did not even recognize me.

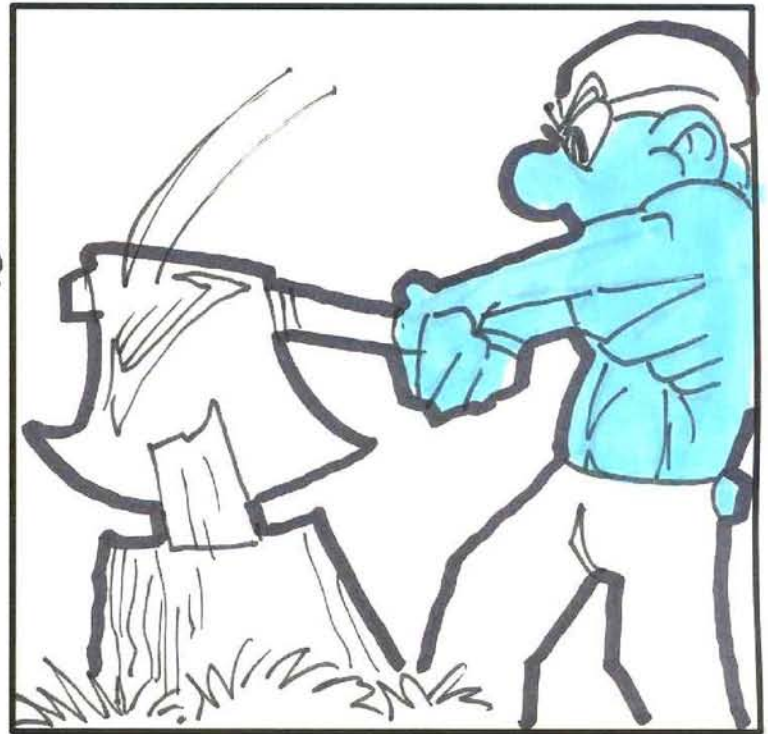

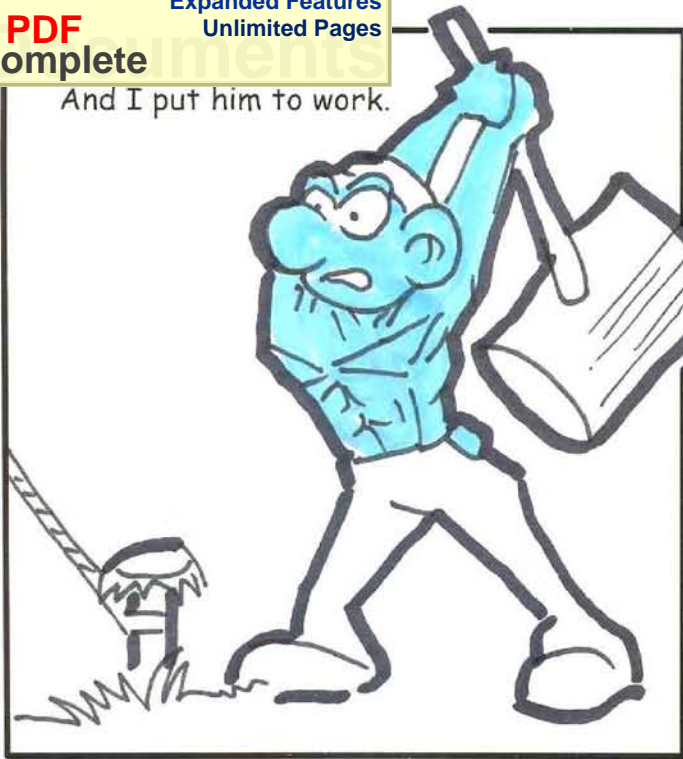

Come on.
Let's get you cleaned
up.

So I took him out of the city and into the country.

And I put him to work.

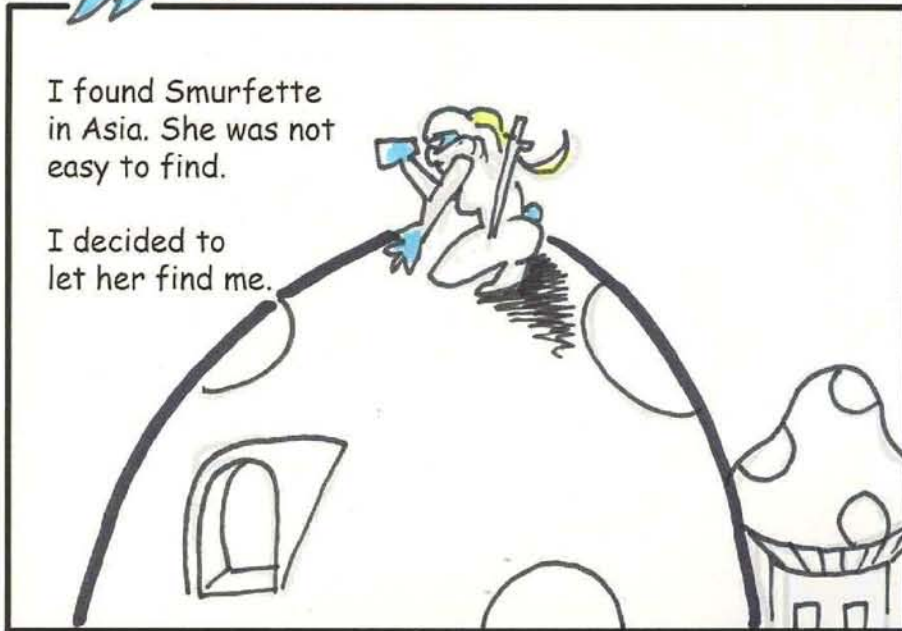

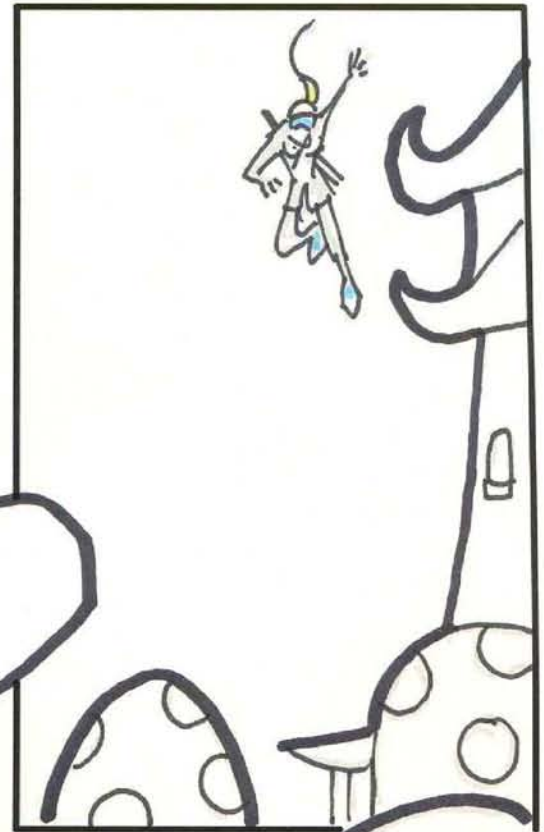

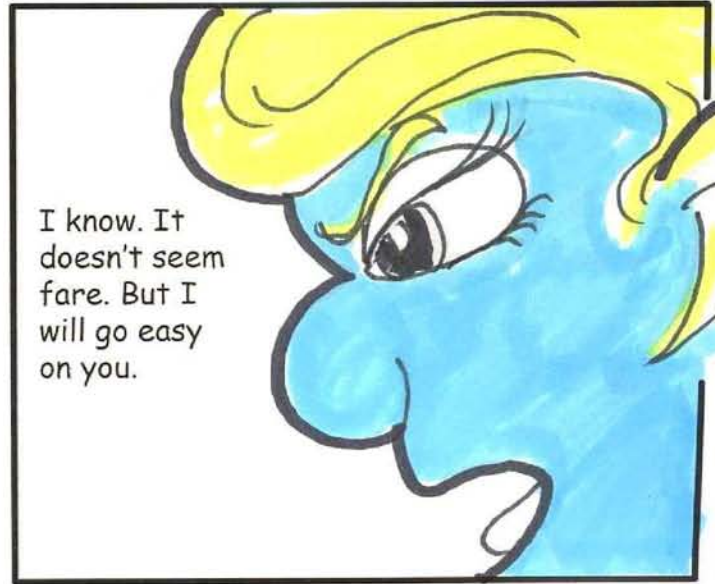

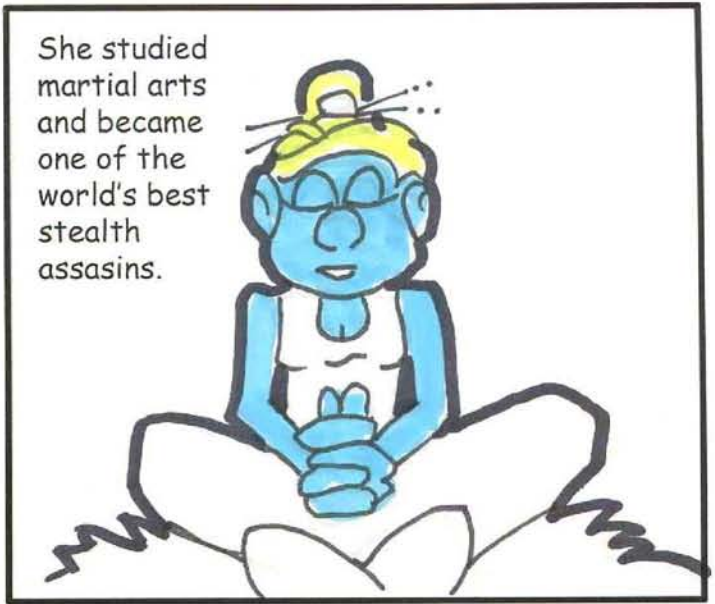

After two weeks, Hefty was sober,
clean and stronger than ever.

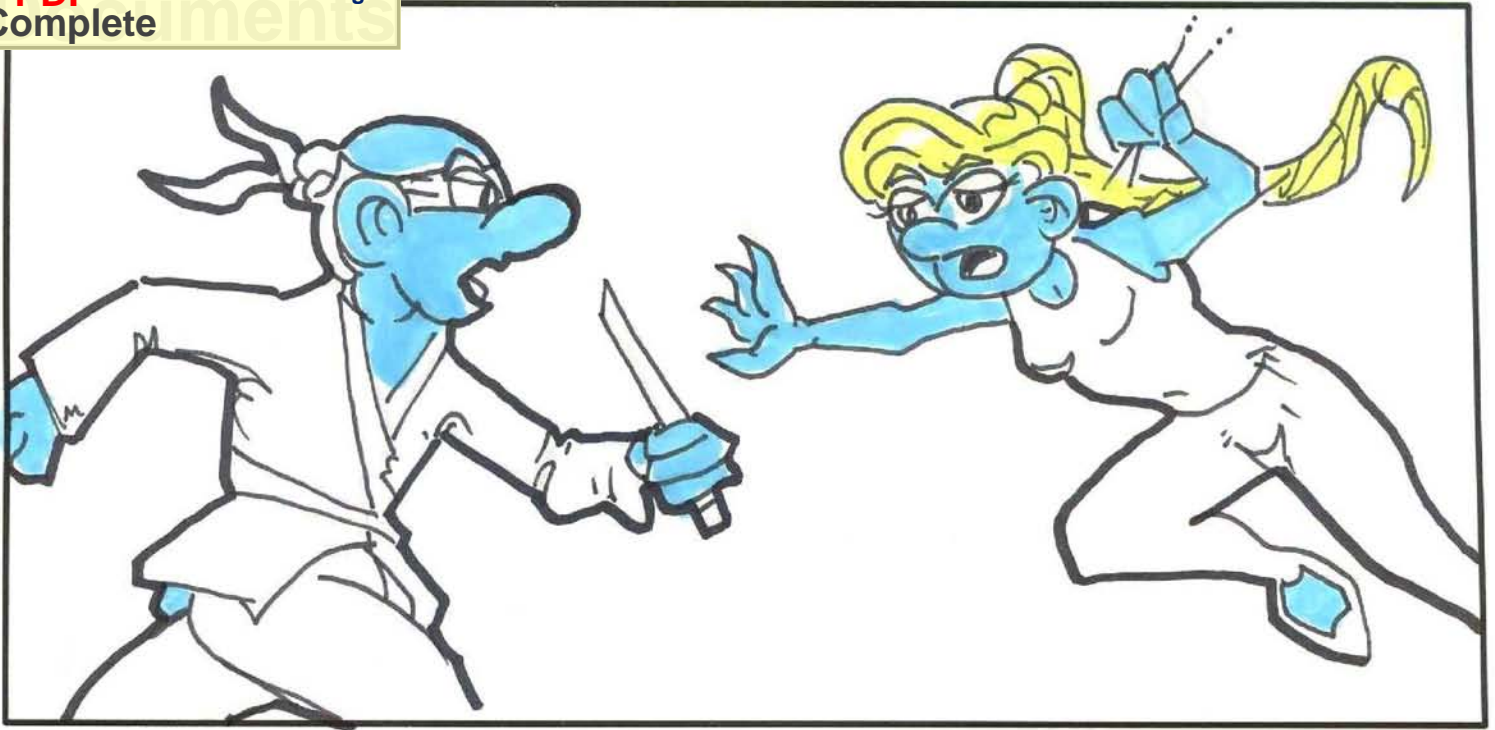

Hefty agreed to help
me recruit the others

SMURFETTE

Smurfette
You know in practice we
do not draw blood.

Sorry, Master
I got carried away.

Regardless, I think you are ready for your next assignment.

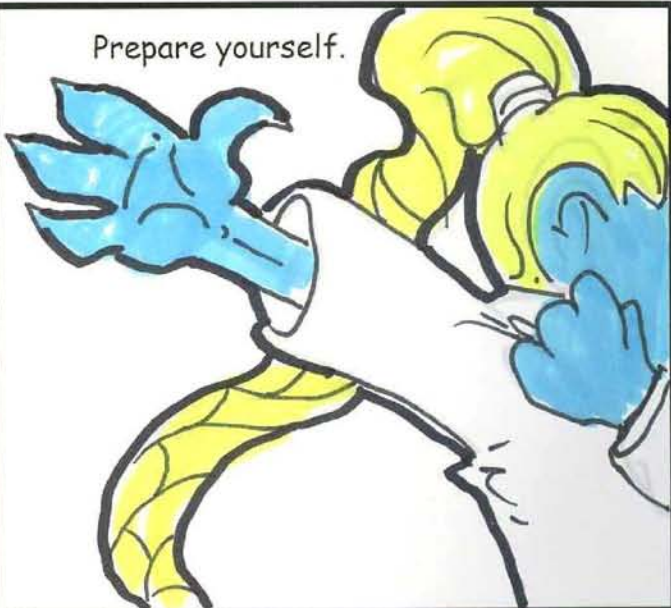

Who is the mark?

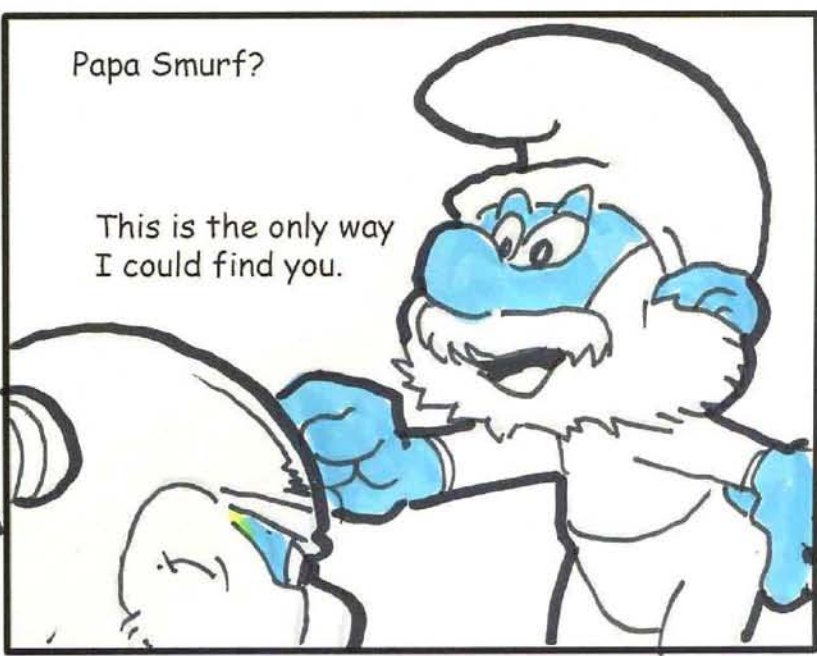

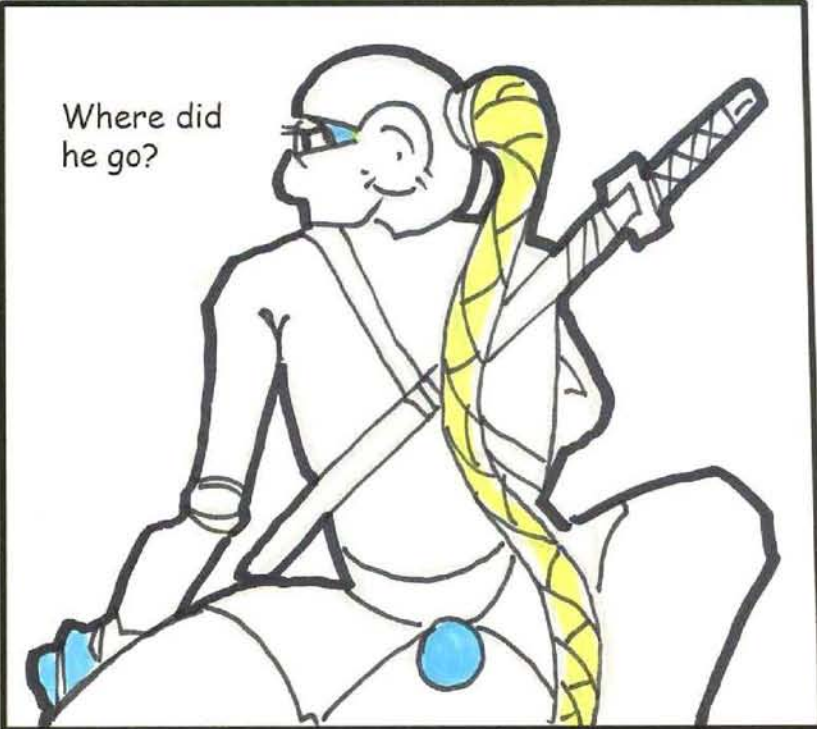

He is a very old, very powerful smurf.

Prepare yourself.

Watch for an ambush and expect resistance.

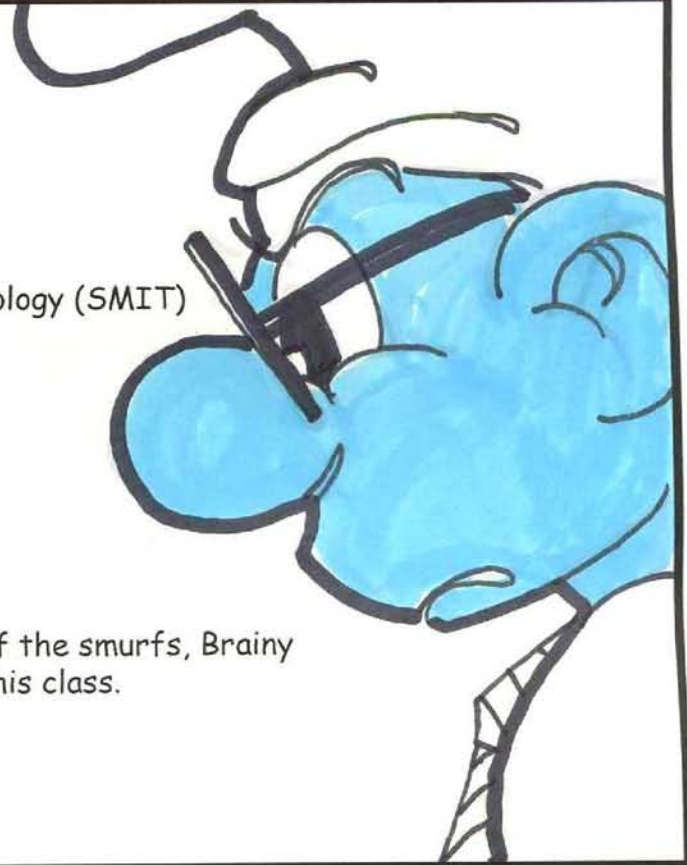

BRAINY

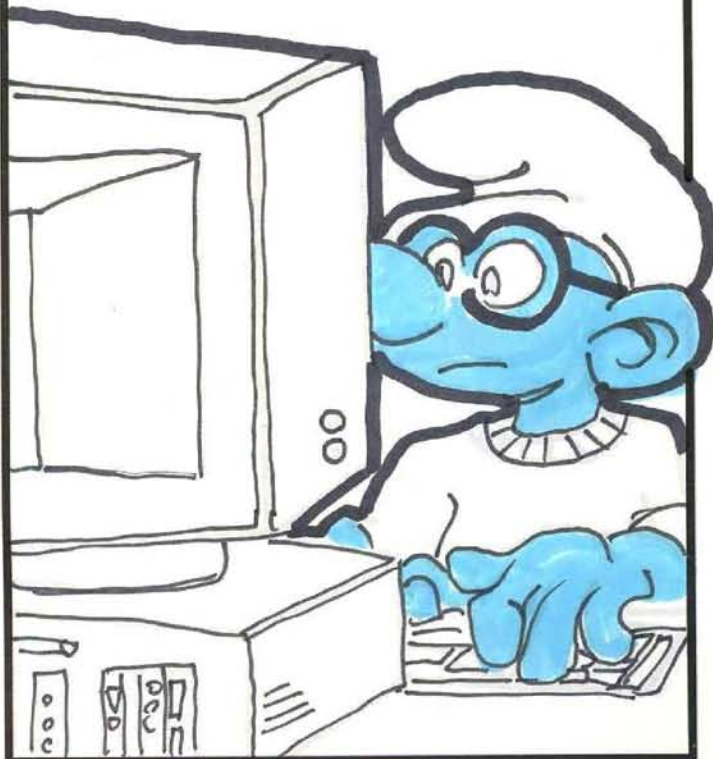

After the war, Brainy Smurf went to the Smurf Institute of Technology (SMIT)

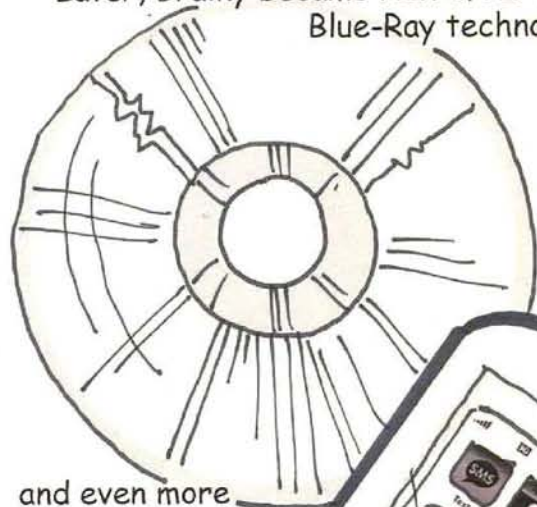

The smartest of the smurfs, Brainy was the top of his class.

But Brainy was lonely. While in school, Brainy developed BlueDate.com. The site was a hit.

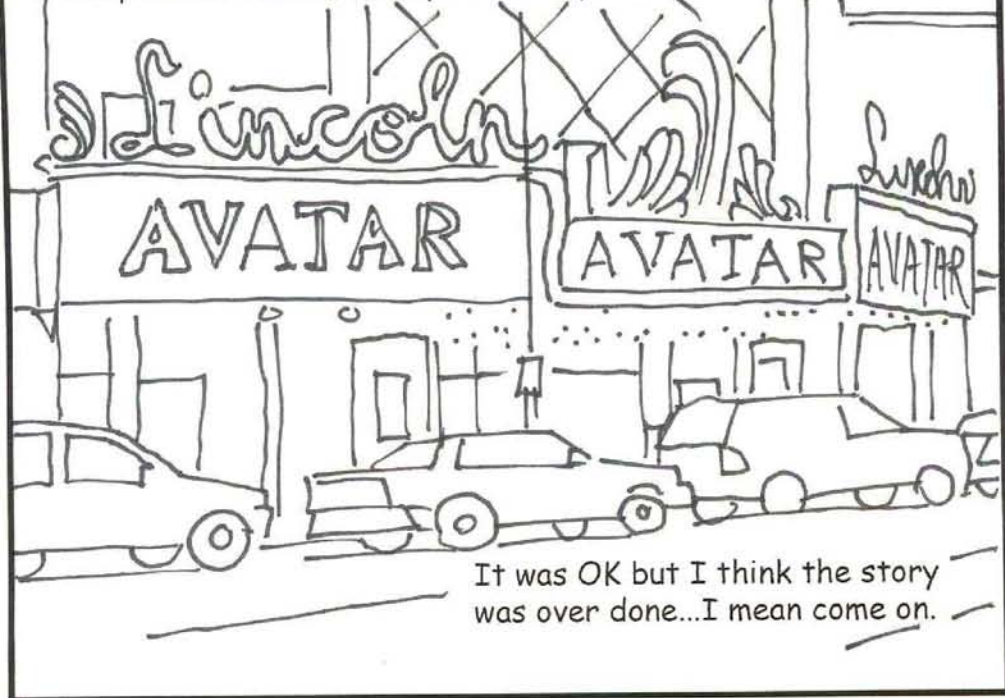

Later, Brainy became rich after developing Blue-Ray technology and even more rich when he invented the SMURF Phone.

ny still had problems with women.

It was OK but I think the story was over done...I mean come on.

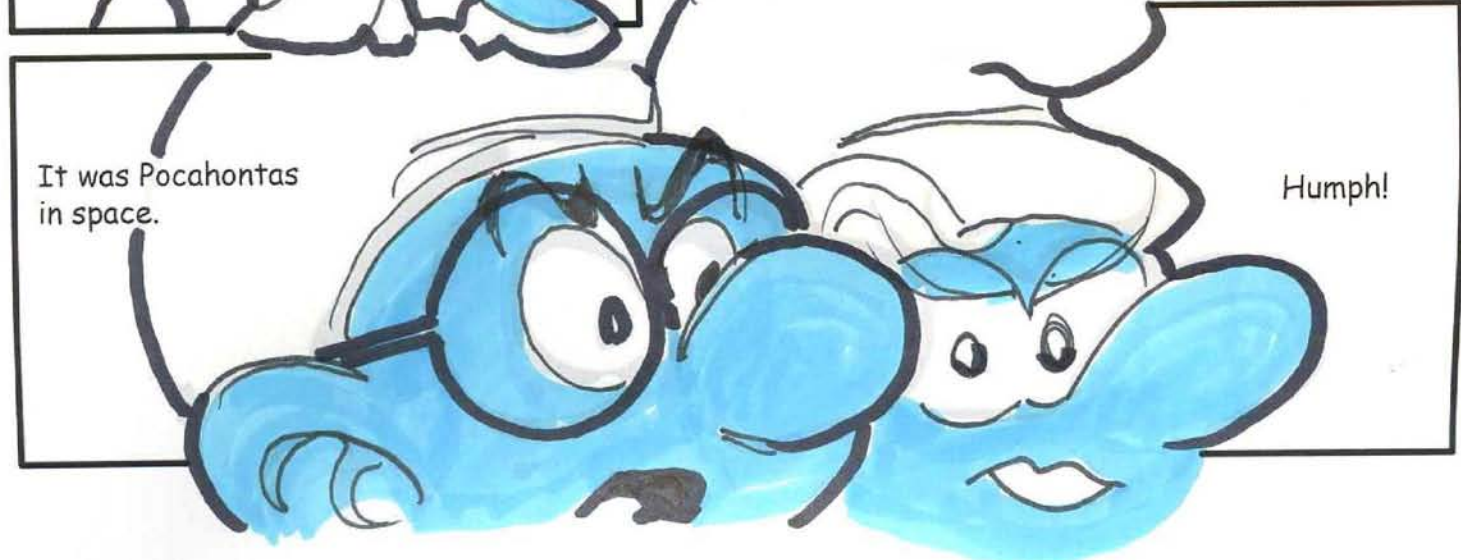

It is the oldest story in the book. Smurfs are bad...

We don't respect the earth and someday the earth is going to retaliate.

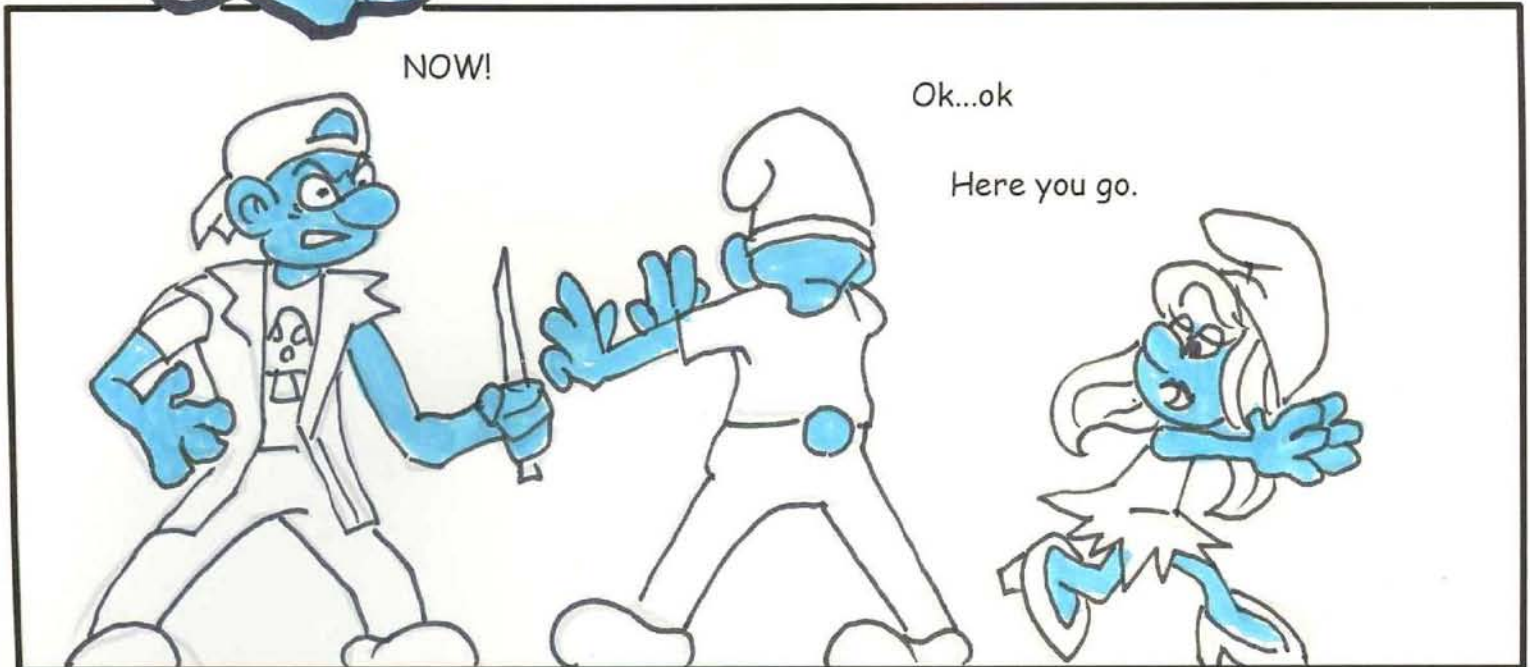

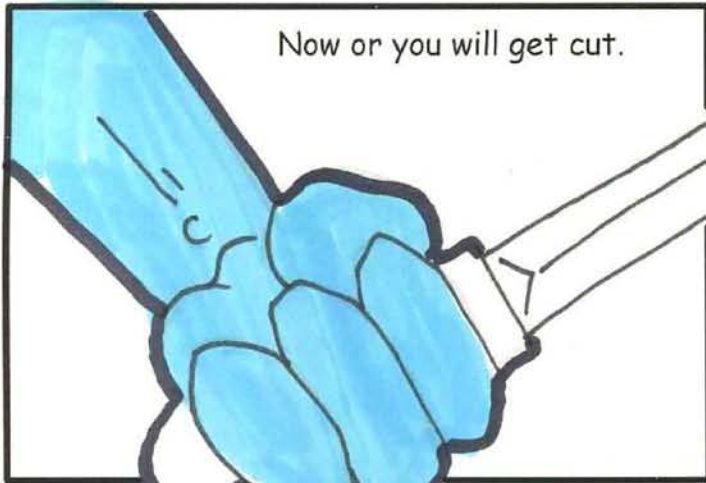

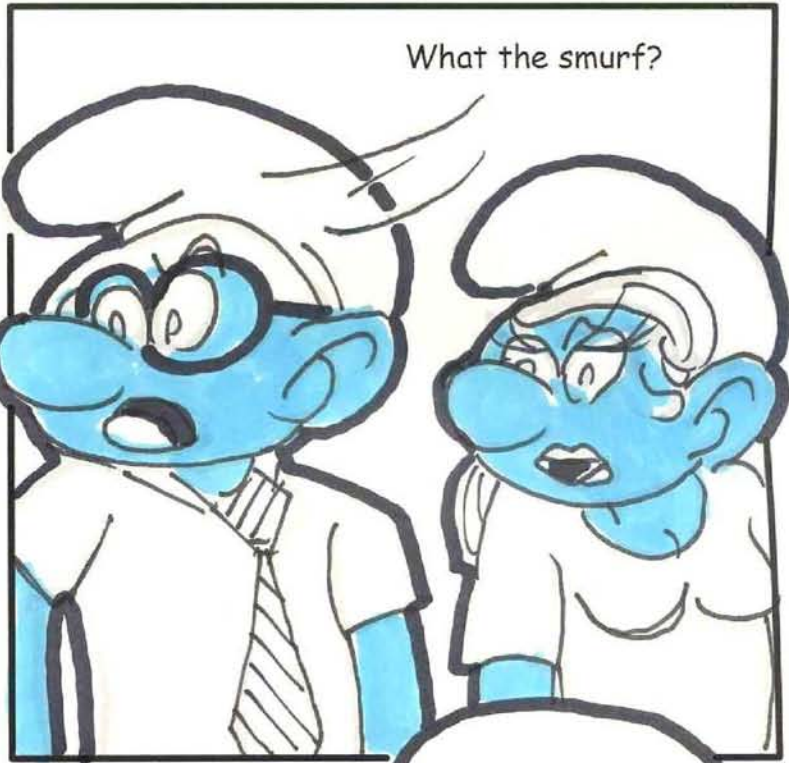

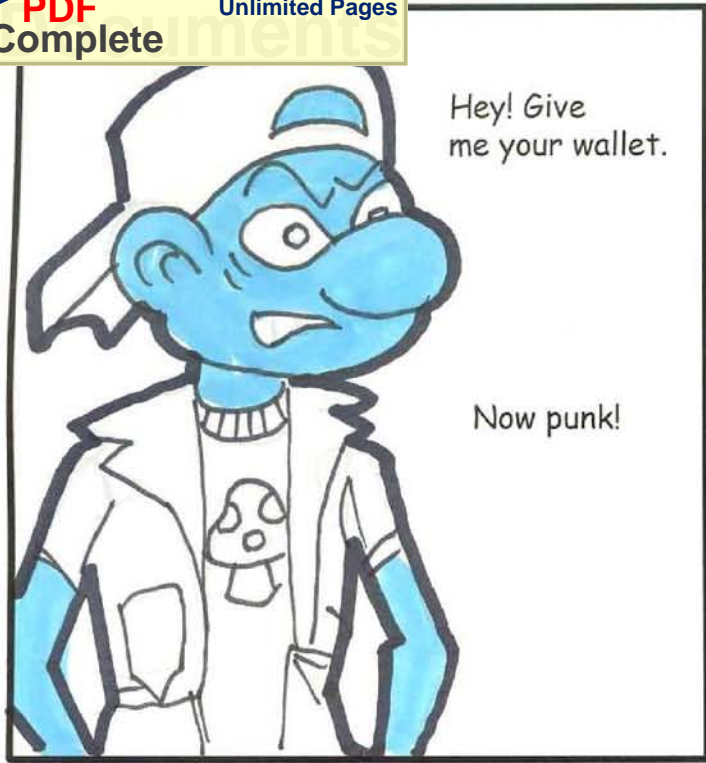

I could not get over how pink they were.

It was Pocahontas in space.

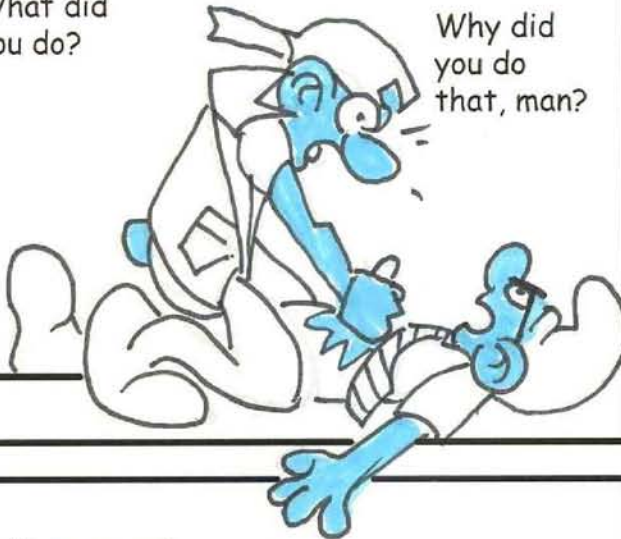

Humph!

Then the smartest smurf did a stupid thing

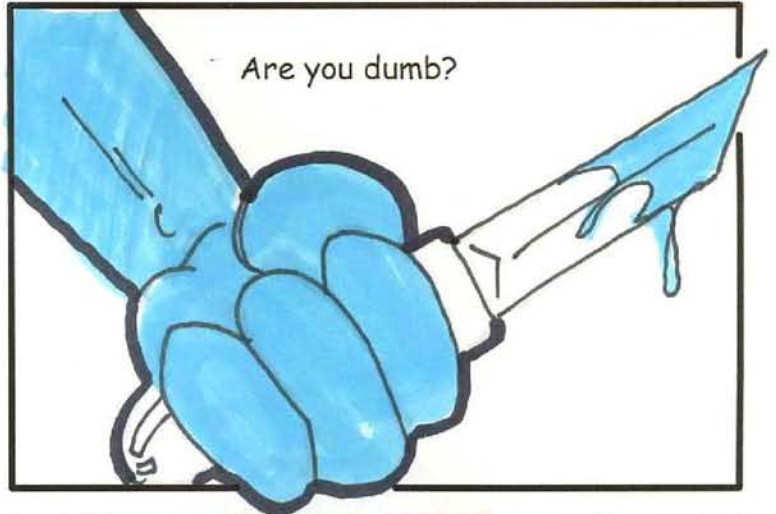

What did you do?

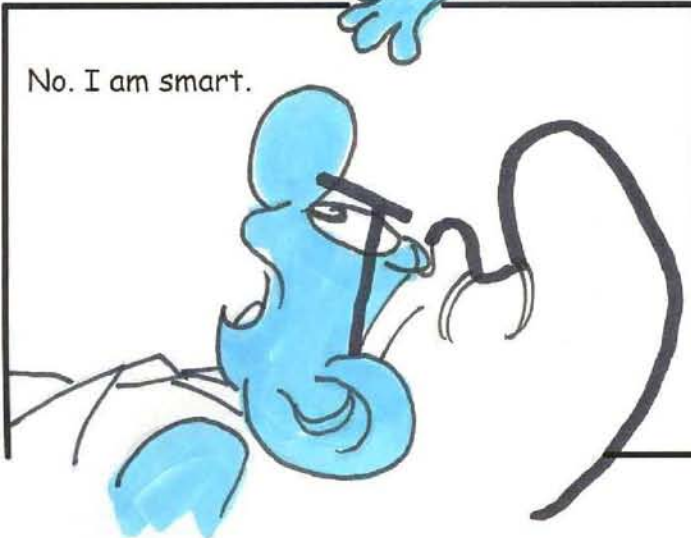

Why did you do that, man?

Are you dumb?

No. I am smart.

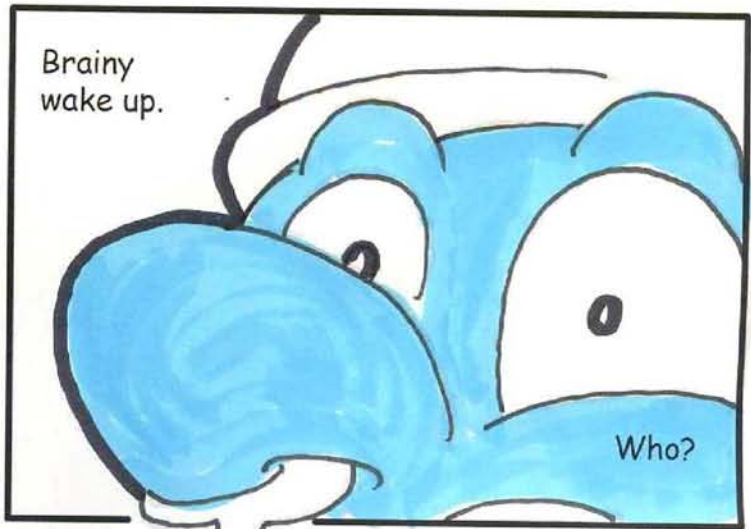

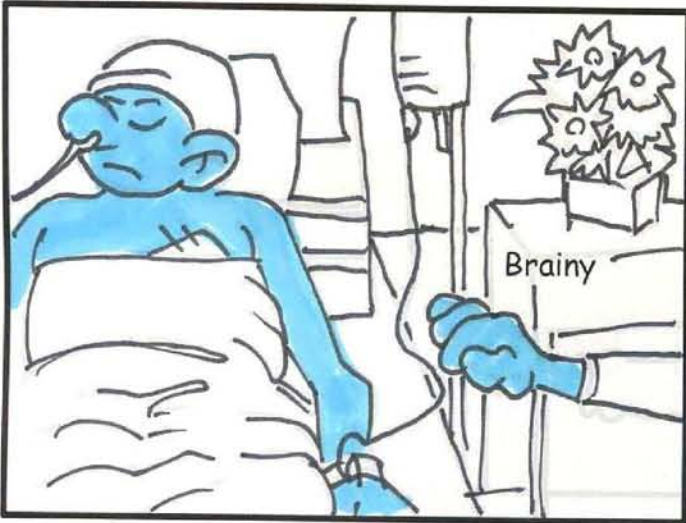

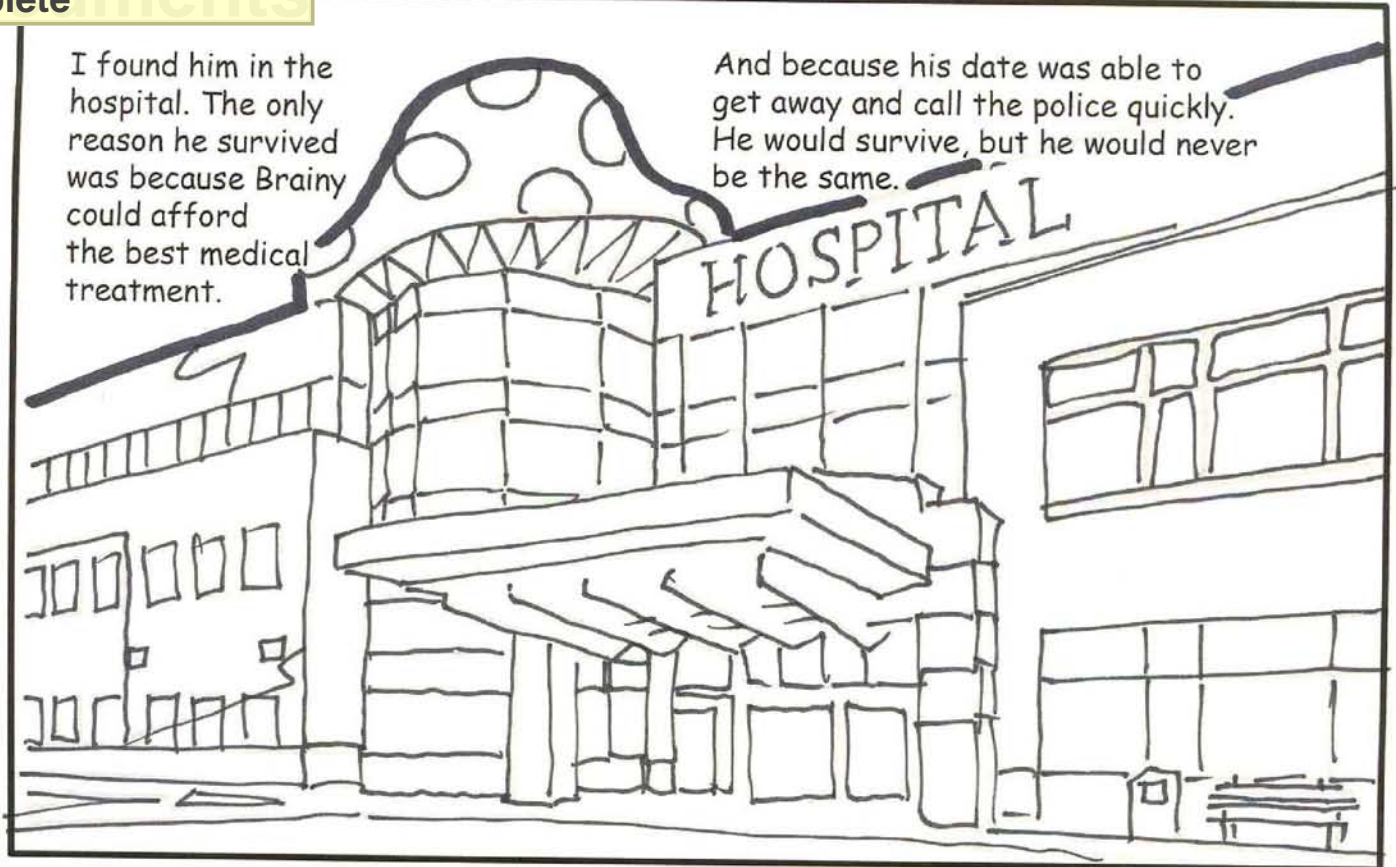

I'm smart....

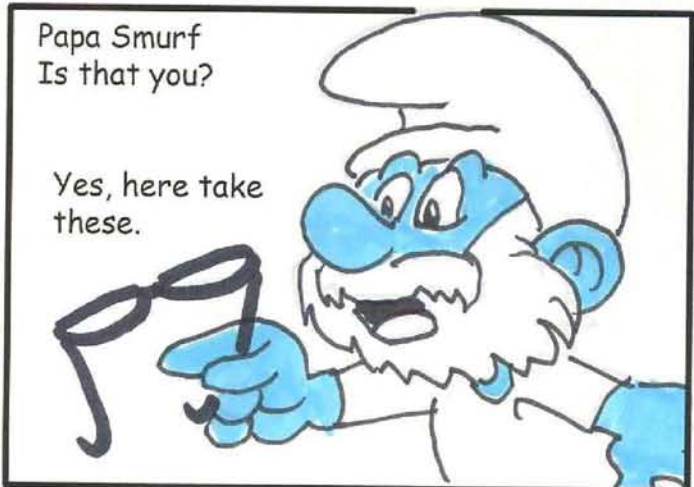

I found him in the hospital. The only reason he survived was because Brainy could afford the best medical treatment.

And because his date was able to get away and call the police quickly. He would survive, but he would never be the same.

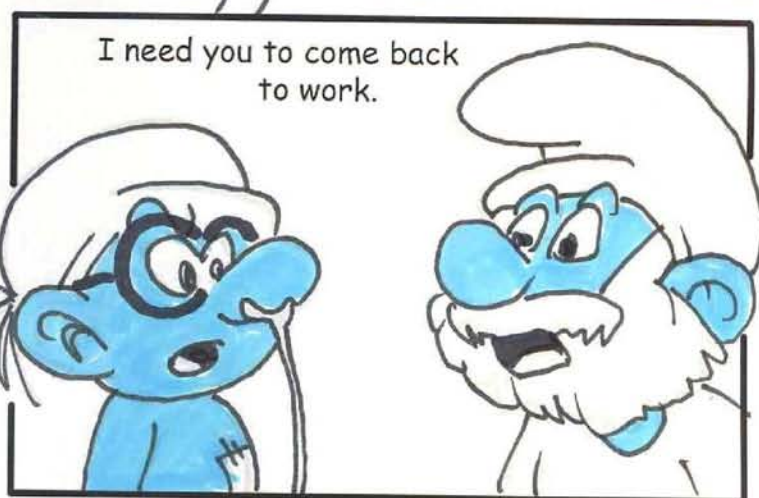

Brainy wake up.

Who?

Papa Smurf
Is that you?

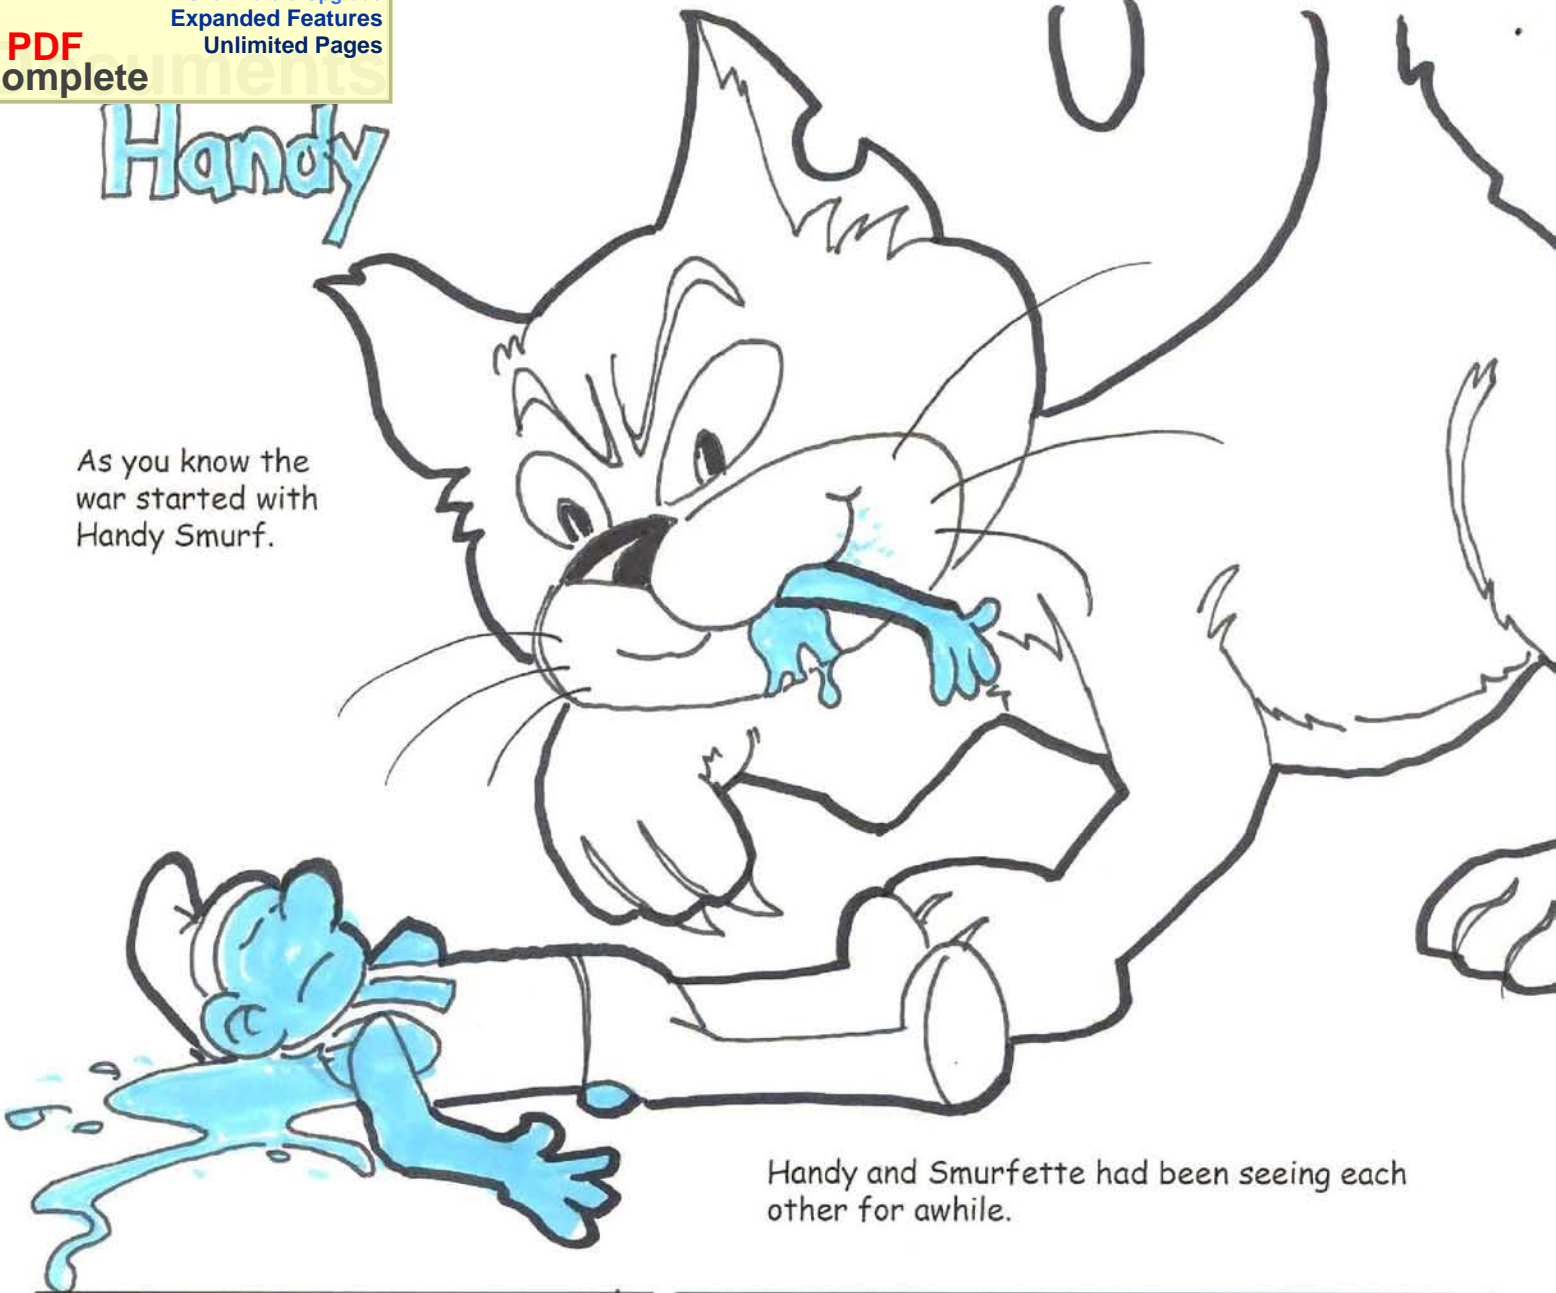

Yes, here take these.

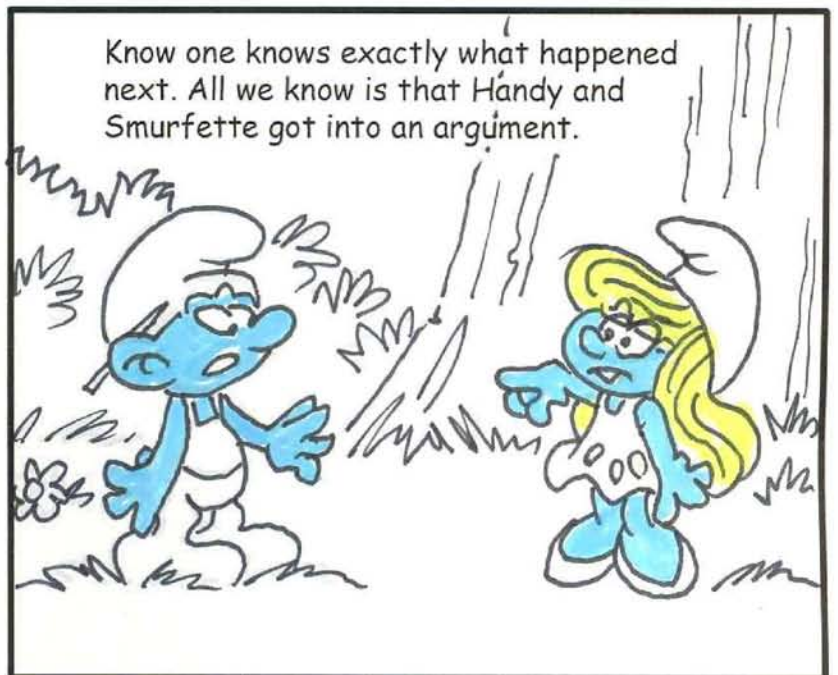

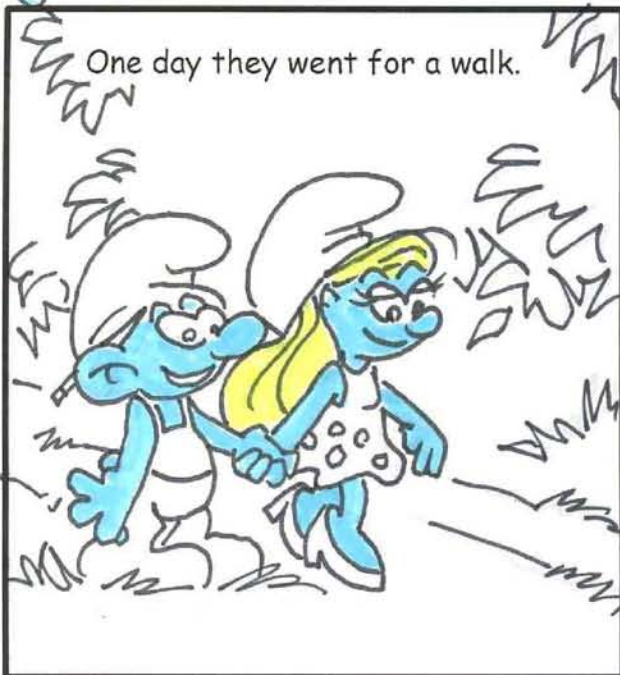

I need you to come back to work.

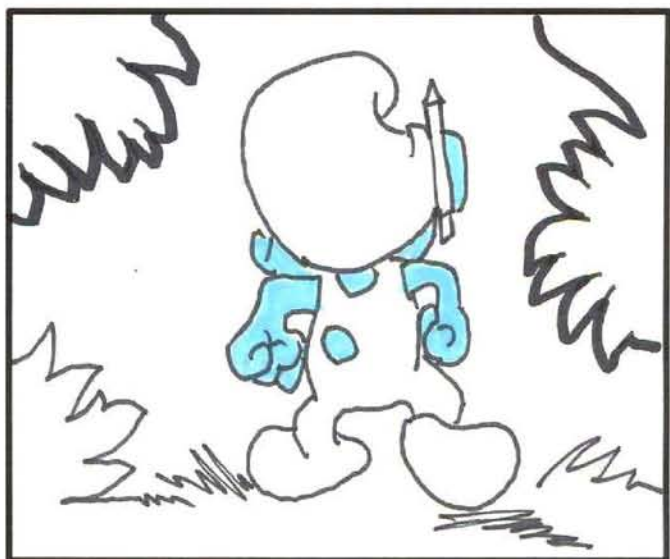

Handy

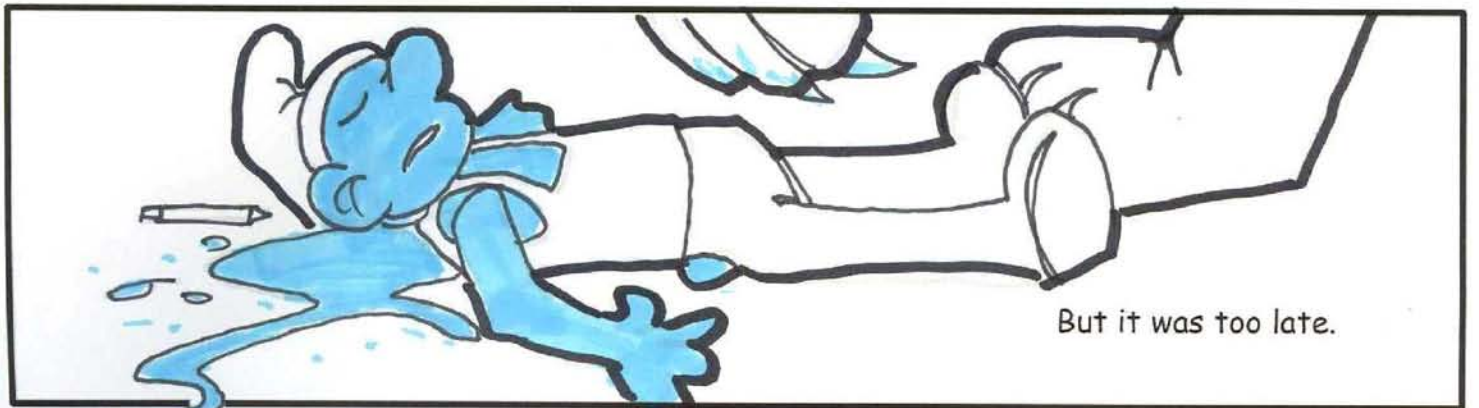

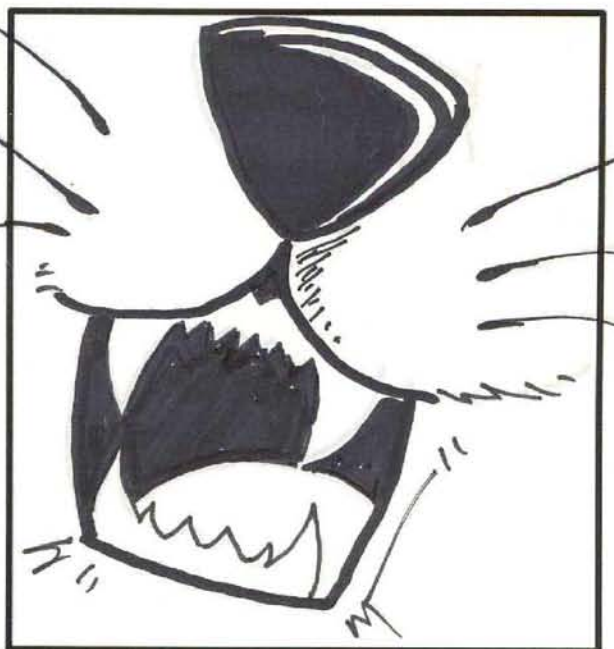

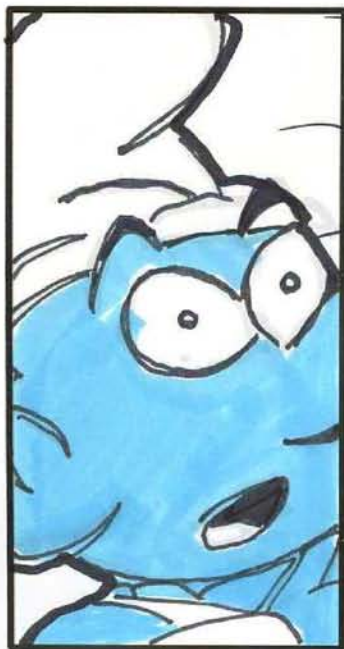

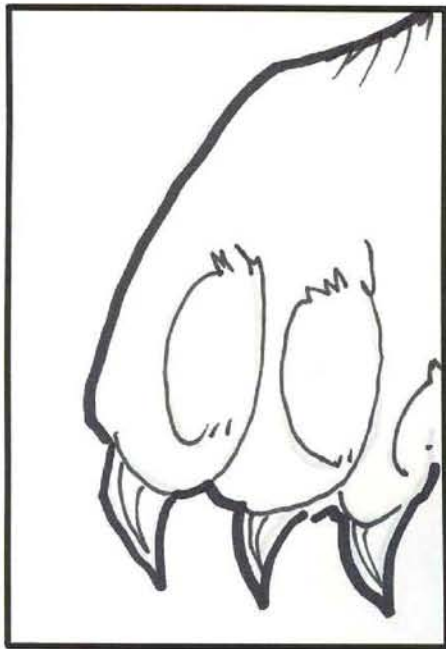

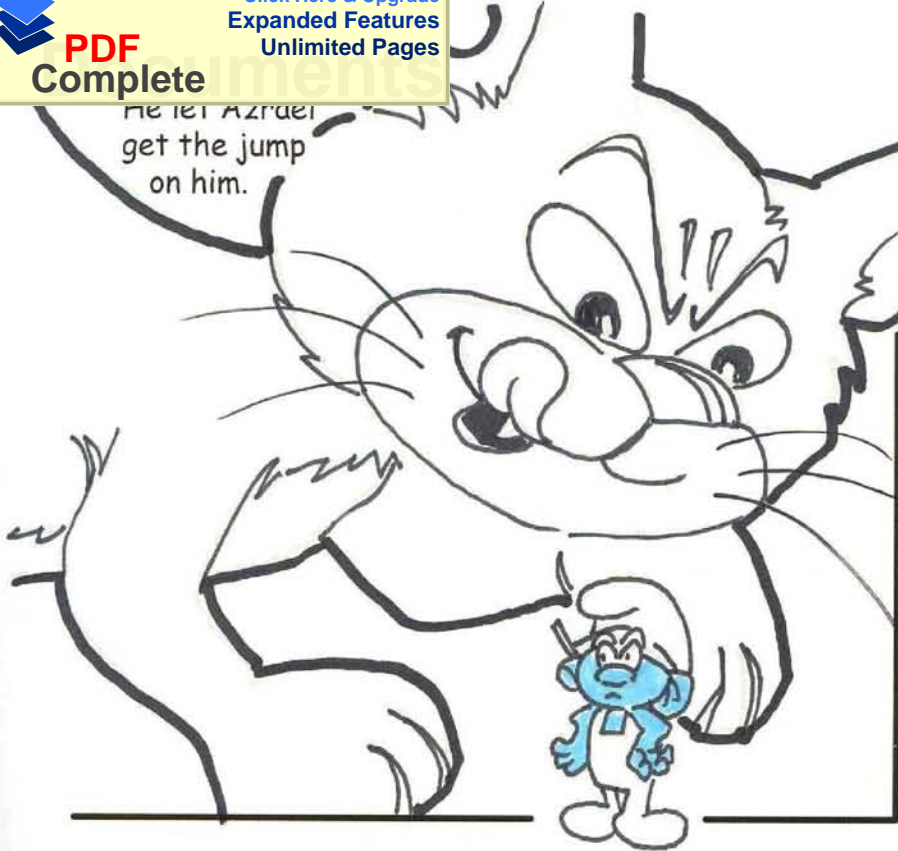

As you know the war started with Handy Smurf.

Handy and Smurfette had been seeing each other for awhile.

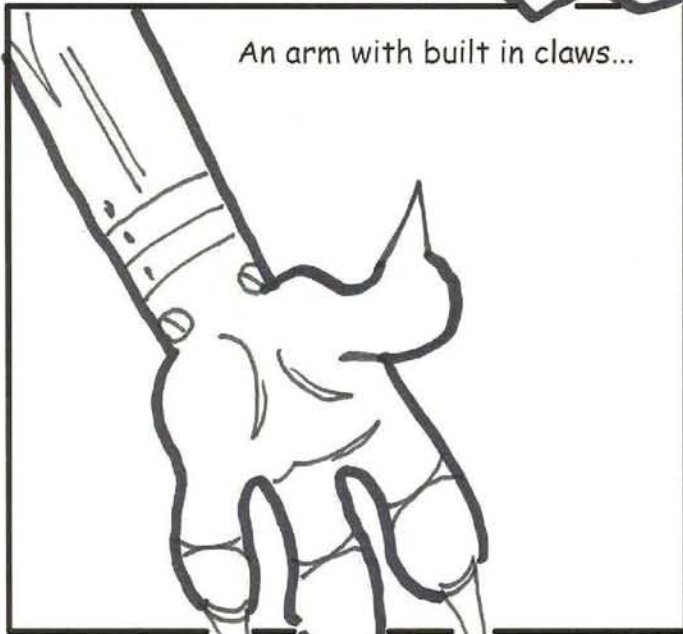

Papa Smurf did all he could.
Handy did not die but he lost the arm.

Handy - being the most
inventive of the smurfs
decided to build a new arm.

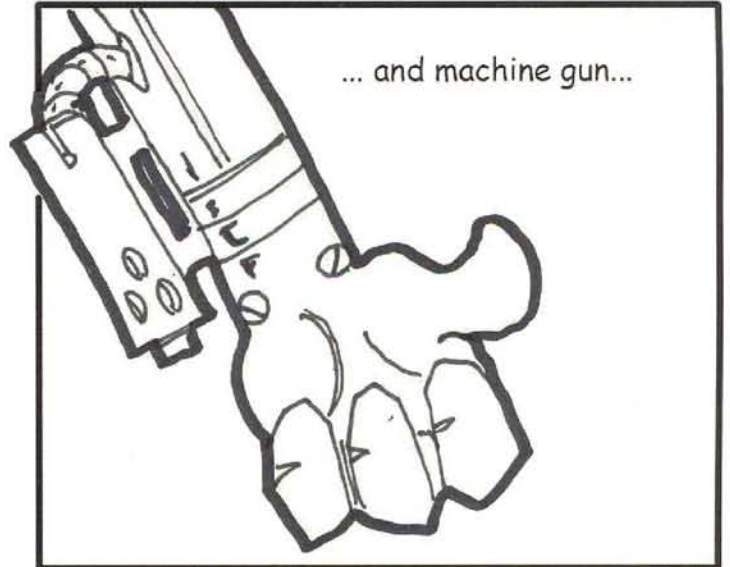

The rest of the smurfs
planned an ambush
for Azrael.

An arm with built in claws...

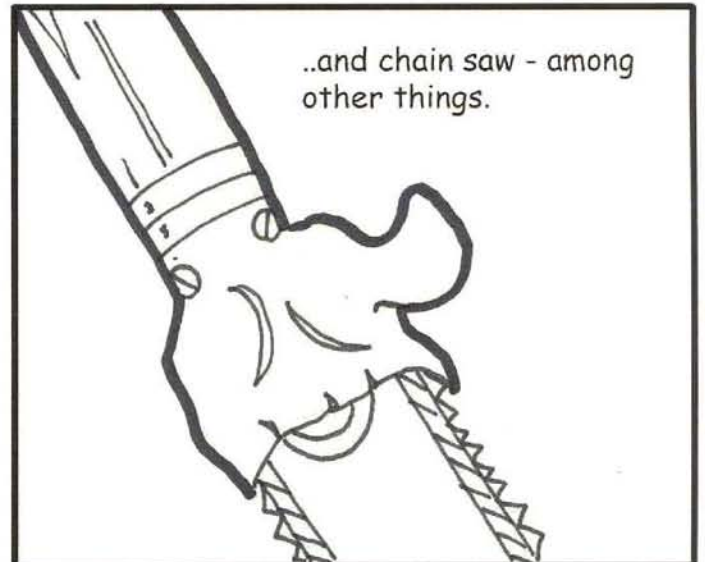

... and machine gun...

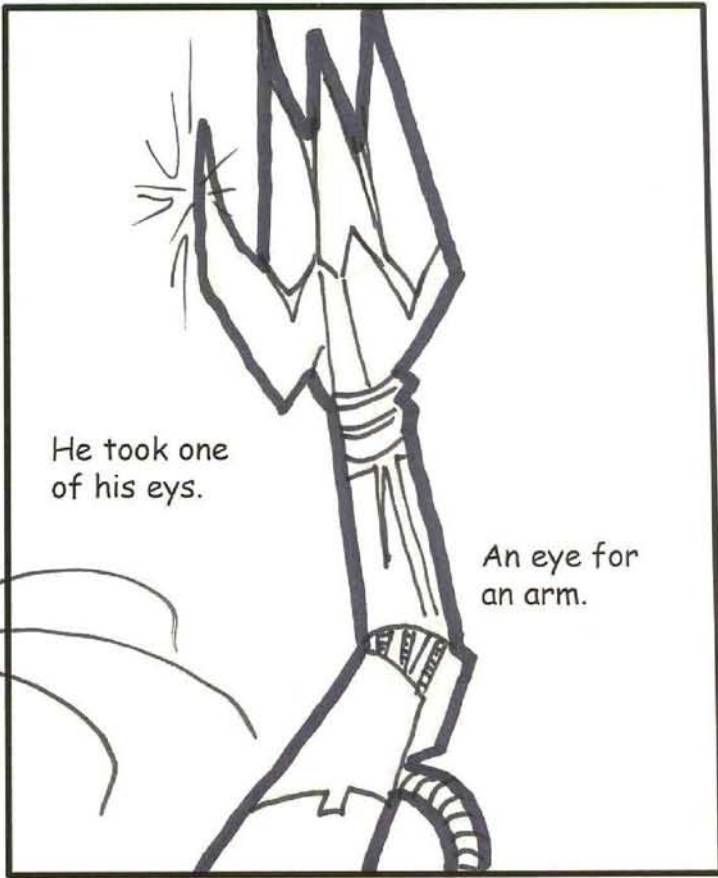

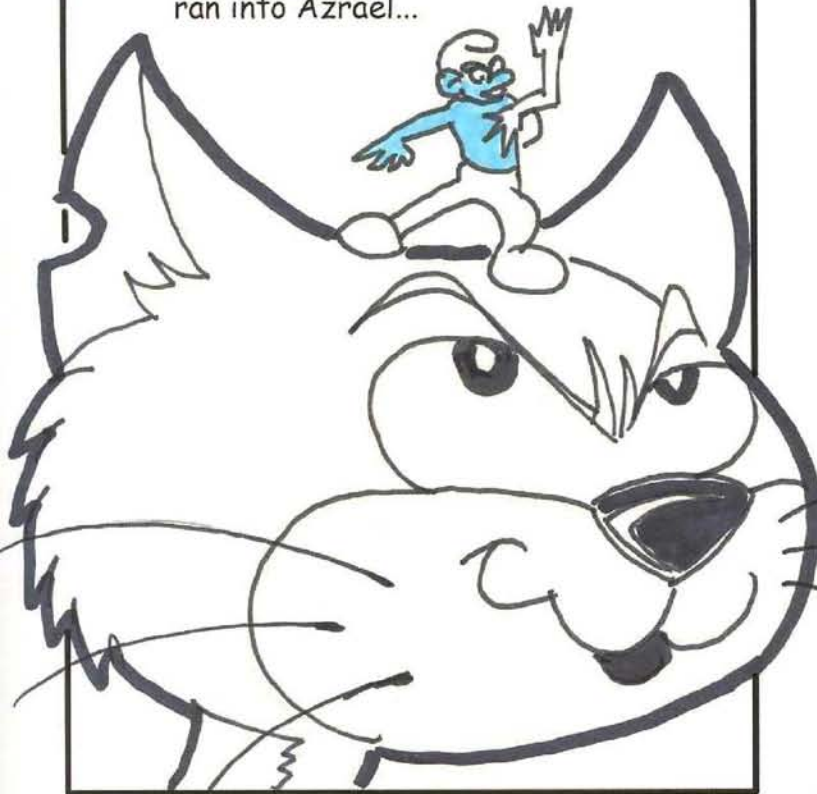

...and flamethrower...

..and chain saw - among other things.

The next time Harry ran into Azrael...

He took one of his eyes.

An eye for an arm.

But you already knew that.

So the question is what are you doing now? Are you trying to continue this war?

If you are must warn you...

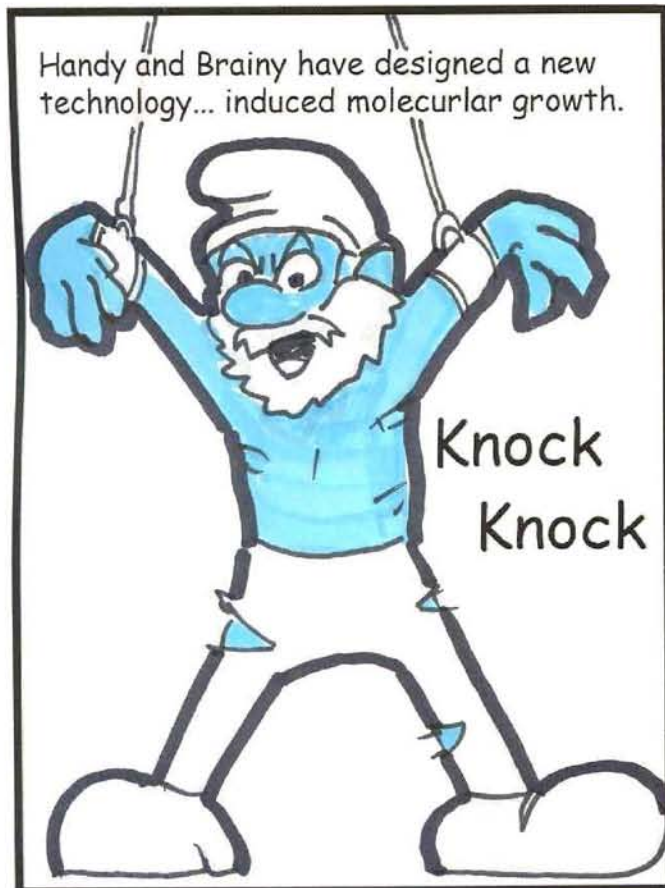

That is a great story.

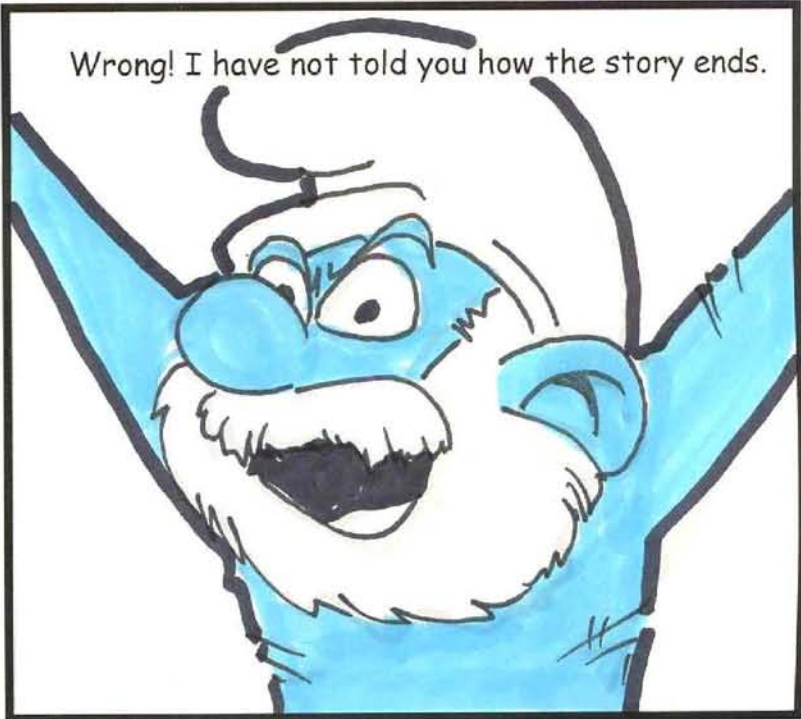

But the point is you are still tied up and Azrael is getting hungry.

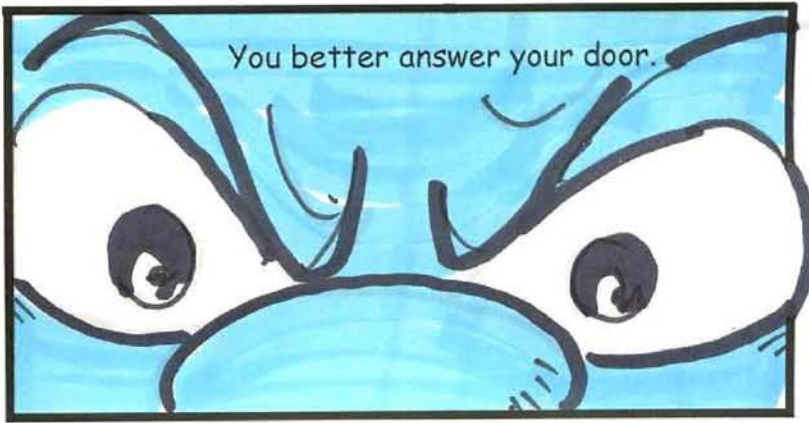

Handy and Brainy have designed a new technology... induced molecular growth.

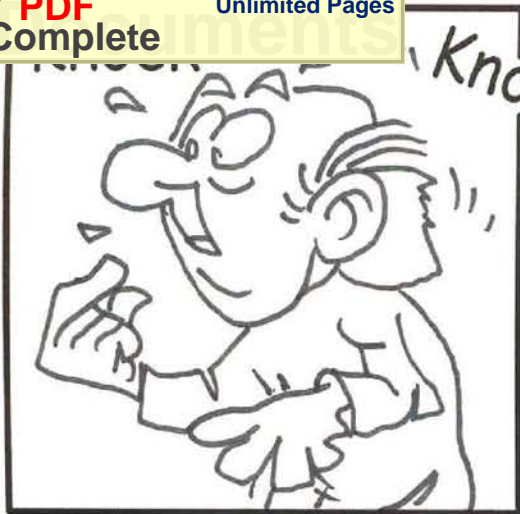

Knock
Knock

Wrong! I have not told you how the story ends.

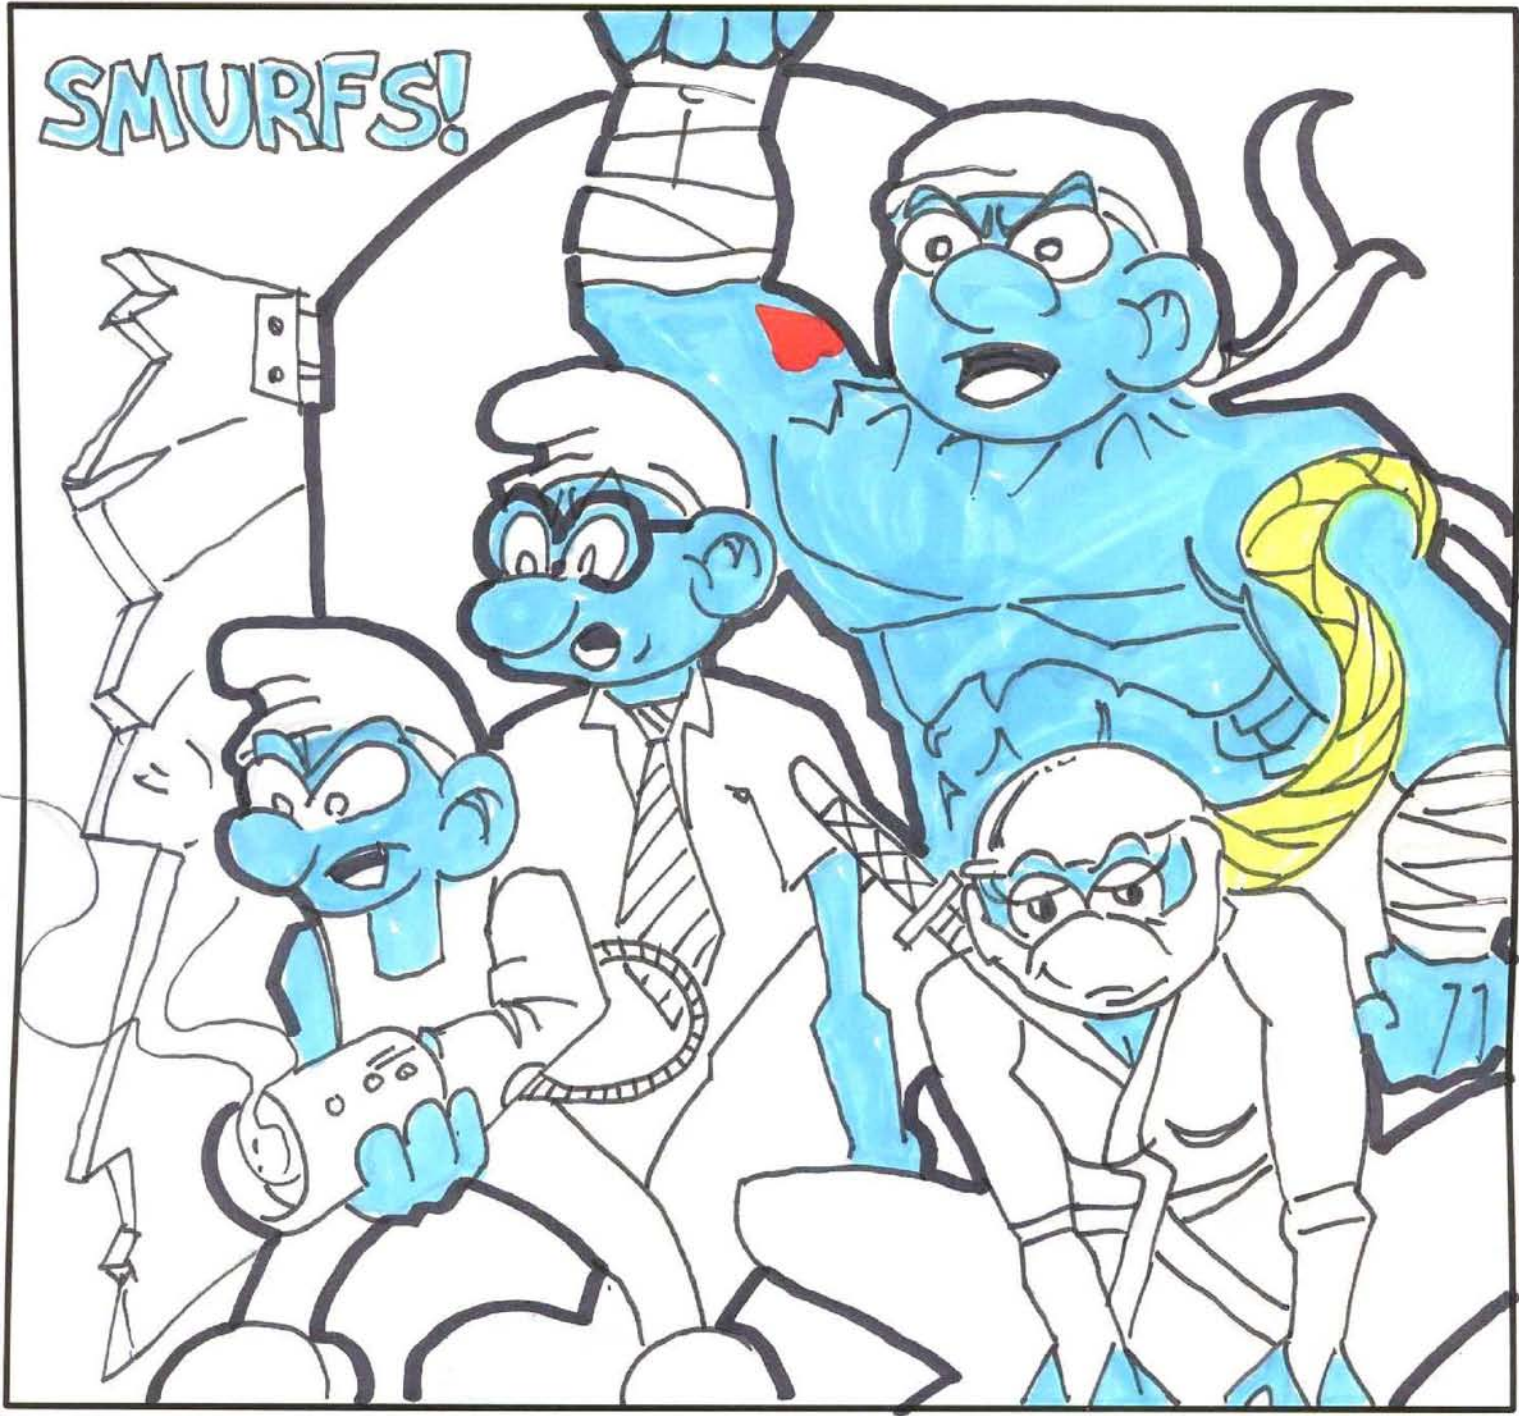

You better answer your door.

Knock

Who is it?

SMURFS!
